

Time to Talk Next Steps

Free Support for Young People with Additional Needs & Their Families

About the Programme

Time to Talk Next Steps provides free support for young people aged 16-25 years in England with additional needs. It is for young people who are experiencing anxiety, isolation and who have limited or no plans for the future. In partnership with the National Development Team for Inclusion (NDTi), Contact are providing support, information and workshops for parents and carers about transition to adulthood. The project is generously funded by The National Lottery Community Fund.

What Support Is Available for Young People?

Depending on what each young person wants and needs, there are various types of support available:

One-to-One Online Sessions with a supporter to discuss future plans

Training Opportunities to become a peer supporter or to deliver training for professionals

Peer Support to regularly link up with other young people

Useful Contacts & Networks in your area
