HEALTH AND WELLBEING BOARD

Public Question Sheet

Question (s): Preamble: A report was prepared by Price Waterhouse Cooper which identified a deficit of £90 million in the NHS budget and £25 million in local authority funds (source SCH NHS Trust papers March 2016) Question 1 :- Would the Health and Wellbeing Board agree with me that in the interest of democracy and transparent corporate governance the PWC report should be made available to Shropshire residents? Preamble: From feedback posted on the Shropshire Patient Group web site and articles in the Shropshire Star I have gained an impression that things were a bit of an operational shambles over the Easter weekend and the week following Easter. Question 2 :- Were the operational arrangements put in place to jointly manage NHS workload during the Easter weekend successful?
HWBB Response: Question 1: Mr David Evans will provide a verbal response. The HWBB : The report in question was not commissioned by the Council or the HWBB. Whilst the Council would support appropriate transparency of reports in the public sector, it is for the commissioner of the report to determine whether this report should be published.	Other comments:
