

Shropshire Libraries

Home educators can borrow up to 25 books and 6 audio books for a 12-week loan period. Items required for the purposes of home education can be requested for free. This means items can be brought in from other libraries around the county free of charge. Home Educators can apply for a Home Education library card by visiting any of the 21 libraries with proof of their name and address. To find your nearest library, please visit: <https://www.shropshire.gov.uk/libraries/find-a-library/>.

Moody Family Home Education Adventure

A family-of-five from Shropshire have set off on an extraordinary adventure, travelling the globe in a motorhome they built from scratch. They aim to give their children a 'perspective that they wouldn't get in the classroom.' To read more about their adventure please visit: Shropshire Star or <https://ironcrumbandco.com/our-story/>.

If you would like to share your story or adventure with the EHE team please get in touch at ehe@shropshire.gov.uk.

Celebrations

We have seen many achievements throughout Shropshire over the past few months. If you would like to share your child's achievements or send in photographs of their work, please email us at ehe@shropshire.gov.uk.

Sam has been busy categorising different crystals. When Sam isn't busy with scientific experiments, he loves an exhilarating adventure.

A Ballard to Muhammad

Very young and hungry to attack,
Ally began his boxing track,
In Rome 1960, known as Cassius Clay,
He won Olympic gold for the USA.

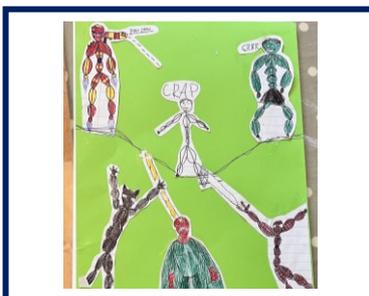

From there he began his professional career,
And jumped up the ratings like a deer,
This brass young boxer was something to see,
And heavy weight boxing was his destiny.

This was the start of the legend of Clay,
The most beautiful boxer in the world today,
He talks a great deal and brags indeed,
Of a muscular punch of incredible speed.

An extract from Serenity's poem 'A Ballard to Muhammad.'

Jack has been practising his creative skills through different artistic techniques. As you can see, Jack has created an action-packed comic poster and a terrifying drawing of 'THE BEAST!'

Summer Newsletter 2023

Next Steps

As another academic year ends, you may be considering what's next for your child. Doodle Academy have produced a comprehensive careers and employability guide that you may find useful to explore colleges, sixth forms, apprenticeships and much more <https://doodleacademy.co.uk/careers/>.

You can find a list of further education colleges, specialist colleges, training providers and school 6th forms in and close to the Shropshire border here: <https://www.shropshire.gov.uk/the-send-local-offer/education/nurseries-schools-colleges-and-specialist-provision/colleges-post-16-providers/>.

We all have arguments

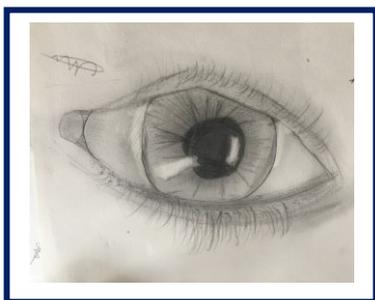

Worried about your relationship or feel you're arguing too much? Not all arguing between parents is harmful but when it's intense or happens a lot of the time, there can be a negative impact on the children. We can find ways to argue 'better', resolve disputes and reduce the conflict at home. Find useful resources, contacts and free workshops at:

<https://www.shropshire.gov.uk/the-send-local-offer/getting-on-better/>.

Celebrations

We have seen many achievements throughout Shropshire over the past few months. If you would like to share your child's achievements or send in photographs of their work, please email us at ehe@shropshire.gov.uk.

Charlotte's fantastic pencil drawing of a human eye.

Not only is Charlotte a fantastic artistic but she is also a budding photographer! Charlotte's portfolio contains lots of incredible photographs such as the two featured above.

FRED THE CAT

There once was a cat named Fred,
Who loved to nap in his bed.
With a purr and a snore,
He slept more and more,
Dreaming of the mice and fish
he 'd been fed.

James has written a fantastic limerick based on his own cat Fred.

Daisy has been visiting Clee Hill for her nature studies project. She completed a species survey.

Isabell has been practising her water colours and created a beautiful painting.