1. Purpose & Aim (what do we want to achieve?)

(See appendix A. for an overview of 'Making it Real')

The Making it Real Board brings together people who use, deliver, plan and commission adult social and health care services in Shropshire. It aims to ensure the continuous improvement and transformation of services using the principles behind the national 'Making it Real' "I" statements and locally the Shropshire Essential ingredients of adult social care (See example Essential Ingredients 'stamp' below – Figs 1 and 2).

The 'Making it Real' Board focusses the voices of experts by experience to influence social care strategic planning for Shropshire.

The Board's major responsibility is to ensure that co-production with people who use services and their carers is a reality and central to future developments. We believe that all social care services should be devised and enhanced with service user participation, giving shared opportunities to solve problems and design services.

Through an annual programme of meetings the MiR Board (and Advisory Groups) will review areas of development and performance so that the Board can hold the Council to account, and support and assist progress to toward personalisation and community based support.

Throughout the year the Board will make representation to areas such as:

- Training and Development.
- Partnership Boards.
- Feedback and Complaints.
- Leadership.
- Health and Well-being Board.

All groups will be encouraged to include 'Making it Real' as an agenda item so that there can be a flow of ideas and information to and from the Board.

The aim of the 'Making it Real' approach is for personalisation to be a reality for people who use services and their carers so that they have more choice and control and can live as full and independent lives as possible. The Board will look to place the principles of Making it Real, as encapsulated within the "I" statements (see Appendix D), in the planning, review, commissioning and contract monitoring processes of the Local Authority. One way of doing this will be to devise essential ingredients checks that can be measured and reported in the annual Local Account.

Individuals and organisations are supported to enhance skills, knowledge and the ability to actively work together, through participation in both the Local Advisory Groups and the Board itself.

2. Principles (what is important to the Board?)

The Board will work collaboratively and be a partnership between experts by experience and senior representatives. We will actively engage with people who use services, carers and the wider community through a series of Advisory Groups in Shropshire. The Board will seek ways to enable wider numbers of people to influence and link in with its work, through the use of electronic communication and updates on the Shropshire Choices website:

<https://www.shropshirechoices.org.uk/makingitreal/>.

Shropshire's 'Making it Real' Advisory groups have identified what they feel are the essential ingredients of excellent adult social care and all services will need to measure their day to day activities against these essential ingredients.

The essential ingredients have been used as the basis for training on "Excellent Customer Service" (see appendix E) and a Peer Review of services provided by Let's Talk Local.

The Board intends to further develop feedback sheets that align to these ingredients. These will then be used to measure quality and success in specific areas of social care such as adult needs assessment. The essential criteria can then also be adapted to identify success in broader areas such as the commissioning of services. A Shropshire 'Making it Real' stamp of excellence could then be applied to areas of work identified as successful.

Progress will be recorded in the yearly Local Account (annual report) by the means of real life, honest and open stories and user experiences. The nature of the Local Account will be steered by 'Making it Real' as a document that records progress and prioritises targets for the next year.

A communication plan for the calendar year is attached as appendix F. The plan identifies elements such as:

- Regular bi-monthly updates on Shropshire Choices.
- A targeted number of staff emails per year on priorities.
- MiR update for leadership meetings.
- An aspiration to have an expert by experience at quarterly team meetings in identified areas (ensuring the individual is involved in a continuous way and well prepared beforehand).

3. Role (what will the Board do to achieve its aim?)

Key aspects to the Board's role:

- A. The Board will choose a number of themes per year and then drill down to look into how we are going to achieve / how we are achieving?
- B. Act as a critical friend to the senior leadership within adult services to assist the move to personalisation.
- C. Clarify what we feel are the essential ingredients of adult social care and then measure services against these as we progress towards personalisation and enhanced community based services.
- D. Place experts by experience at the centre of the decision making process.
- E. By being transparent and aspirational about our goals, support social care services to buy into Making it Real and develop their own action plans.

4. Achieving our role.

In order to achieve our role the board will:

- Identify opportunities for the involvement of people who use services, carers and staff so that the continued transformation of social care is built on experience-based insight about what works and makes a difference in people's lives.
- Report progress towards personalisation back to people who use services, family carers and the people of Shropshire through the Local Advisory Groups and the Local Account. The Board will guide this process and be a lead for others.
- Support people who use services to get involved in 'Making it Real' through the Local Advisory Groups. Promote the MiR approach to the wider social care audience and encourage sign-up.
- Review 2017's priorities by inviting reports to the Board.

5. Membership of Local Advisory Groups and the ‘Making it Real’ Board

‘Making it Real’ – Local Advisory Groups are open to all carers and individuals that use services, as well as staff from social care.

The groups will draw upon the experiences had by people who use services and family carers and use their knowledge and views to help inform discussions and feedback.

Staff representatives will also use their experience and knowledge as front-line workers to help inform discussions and feedback.

The 'Making it Real' Board will include the following:

- Representatives from advisory groups for people who use services (Experts by Experience)
- Representatives from advisory groups for carers (Experts by Experience)
- Member of Shropshire Council with responsibility for Health & Wellbeing
- Shropshire Council Director of Adult Services
- Member of Healthwatch

Meetings of the Board will be arranged by Shropshire Council, who will also provide the clerking and recording of the meeting.

If Board members are unable to attend meetings their comments and feedback will be sought through the sharing of meeting notes.

In addition to the above the co-chairs will:

- Ensure that meetings are run efficiently and that all views are heard fairly

It is expected that decisions at the Board will be reached by consensus; however, if a vote is required it will be determined by a simple majority of members present and voting. If there are equal members for or against either one of the co-chairs will have the casting vote on a rotating basis.

People who use services and family carers will be supported to participate in Making it Real activities via local Advisory Groups which meet outside of the Board meetings. Members of the public are invited to contribute to the Board meetings by providing their feedback / suggestions via the local Advisory Groups.

Co-production - Individuals, communities and organisations having the skills, knowledge and ability to actively work together, to create opportunities, solve problems and design services.

Principles of co-production – what is important in this way of working?

- Those who use a service are best placed to help design it.

- Partners respecting each other and working together as equals – no one group or person is more important than any other group or person.
- Working closely together from the very start to decide what needs to happen to make services better.
- Listening to each other's point of view and valuing and using all the partners' different skills – everyone has something to offer.
- Building a strong and trusting relationship for the future between professionals and people who use services.

Prevention and early intervention – Offering pro-active, low level services early on, to help people stay independent and active, in a way that's right for them.

Universal services – Good access to information, advice and advocacy so that the individual can make informed choices around health, housing, employment, welfare rights, learning, transport, leisure and so on. Also developing local partnerships to co-produce a range of services and improve social inclusion.

Social capital - Using friends, neighbours, family, support groups, charities and voluntary organisations to support people to make the right decision for them.
