1.0 Synopsis

1.1 This report deals with the overall constitution of committees, the overall entitlement of seats for each of the political groups and the proportionate allocation of seats between the groups across all committees.

2.0 Executive Summary

- 2.1 The provisions of the Local Government and Housing Act 1989 require the Council to review the representation of each political group on committees, panels etc. at each annual meeting or as soon as practicable after that meeting. The regulations require that all Scrutiny, Standing and Regulatory Committees are politically balanced across the total number of committee places. Subject to that overriding requirement, each committee must also be politically balanced, as far as it is reasonably practicable.
- 2.2 The Executive (Cabinet) is not subject to the political balance rules.
- 2.3 Advisory Committees and other ad hoc bodies and groups are not subject to the political balance rules either, but traditionally political proportionality has been applied to them outside the overall aggregate balance referred to in paragraph 2.1 above.
- 2.4 As a consequence of the resignation of Councillor Tremellen, there may be a need to consider further the allocation of seats to political groups at a future meeting once the outcome of the by election is known if that results in a change in the political balance of the Council.

3.0 Recommendations

- 2.1 That the Council confirms the constitution of committees and the allocation of seats to each of the political groups for the 2022/23 municipal year and the allocation of seats between the political groups, as set out in Appendices 1 and 2 to this report.

REPORT

- 6.1 The allocation of seats on Committees will have no obvious impact in terms of climate change.
