CONSTITUTION OF COMMITTEES AND THE ALLOCATION OF SEATS TO POLITICAL GROUPS

Responsible Officer:	Tim Collard

Cabinet Member (Portfolio Holder):	Councillor Lezley Picton

1. Synopsis

- 1.1 A recent change in membership, as a result of the election of Councillor Colin Taylor to the Alveley and Claverley division, requires amendments to the distribution of seats on committees, and other bodies to which proportionality rules apply.

2. Executive Summary

- 2.1 The provisions of the Local Government and Housing Act 1989 require the Council to review the representation of each political group on committees, panels etc. at each annual meeting or as soon as practicable after that meeting. The regulations require that all Scrutiny, Standing and Regulatory Committees are politically balanced across the total number of committee places. Subject to that overriding requirement, each committee must also be politically balanced, as far as it is reasonably practicable.
- 2.2 The Executive (Cabinet) is not subject to the political balance rules.
- 2.3 Advisory Committees and other ad hoc bodies and groups are not subject to the political balance rules either, but traditionally political proportionality has been applied to them outside the overall aggregate balance referred to in paragraph 2.1 above.

- 2.4 The Council has been advised that Councillor Taylor is to be a member of the Liberal Democrat Group. The by-election was required to be held following the resignation of Elliot Lynch, who had been a member of the Conservative Group.
- 2.5 Accordingly, it is necessary to review the membership of committees to reflect this change in the relative size of the political groups.
- 2.6 In order to accurately reflect the political balance of the authority, and to comply with the principles set out within the Local Government and Housing Act 1989, it is recommended that an additional seat on the Standards Committee be allocated to the Liberal Democrat Group at the expense of the Green Group. Other configurations have been explored with the Group Leaders but this Recommendation produces an overall political balance which most closely meets the legislative requirements.

3. Recommendations

- 3.1. That the Council confirms the revised allocation of seats to each of the political groups for the remainder of the 2023/24 municipal year as a consequence of the change in group membership as follows:
- a) That the composition and revised allocation of seats on its committees and other bodies as detailed in the report be approved.
 - b) That the Leader of the Liberal Democrat Group provides notification of which of its members will be appointed as a member of the Standards Committee.

Report

4. Risk Assessment and Opportunities Appraisal

5. Financial Implications

- 6.1. The allocation of seats on Committees will have no obvious impact in terms of climate change.
