surrounded by green helds and lots of wildlife - after rabbits and haves Lopping across the road.

Albrighton already has a large horising development at Millfield and I support the Shropshine Plan to extend the development of land around that site. It is crucial that green helt land is protected for my children, grandchilder and forme generations. I filly support Altropshires local plan, which controls development and protects our green belt.

Traffic on the rain Shiffal Road is already heavy and fast, so control of growth as per the Local Plan is sessible.
