family connections with Albrighton for over 100 yrs
We moved to Albrighton to try and retire and be in a community village with green belt walks and countryside Brownfield sites should be used first for future development
We support the local plan and agree with most points listed in the draft response template Having spent many years helping to recycle brownfield sites including redundant NHS sites I do not consider development outside the local plan to be appropriate -- What is the position on future development at Half penny Green airport?
