[redacted] one of our local book clubs which helps our local library to stay open & [redacted] the local writers' group which meets [redacted] for coffee. These social connections have enriched my life & strengthened my commitment to our community.

I fully support the local plan as I consider it essential to preserve the character & charm of our village. It ensures that urban creep is kept to a minimum to protect our beautiful countryside which is so important to our sense of community & well-being (8.7-8.8).

Albrighton does not need new large employment buildings being built of the Greenbelt as there are others within walking/cycling distance such as RAF Cosford. The village is blessed with many small businesses & shops providing employment for locals (16.64).
